

Terms and Conditions: ShowMax Video on Demand promotion

Telkom in Partnership with ShowMax offer qualifying Telkom customers limited unmetered access to their ShowMax Video on Demand (VoD) service based on Fair Usage Policies

Any new or existing customers with qualifying products and services, will have limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service.

1. Customers who are eligible for the limited unmetered Internet access to ShowMax promotional are:
 - 1.1 Any new or existing DSL, FTTH or LTE customer who subscribe to TelkomInternet and also subscribe to the TI Entertainment VAS bolt-on, will receive limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service
 - 1.2 Any new and or existing SmartHome customer who take up a Premium, Supreme or any of our Infinite 100, 200 or LTE-A offers, will receive limited unmetered Internet access to their ShowMax service
2. All standard as well as product specific terms and conditions, together with binding conditions to both parties, in this case, Telkom SA SOC and ShowMax services shall prevail. These terms and conditions can be amended from time to time and can be viewed on the relevant company's websites
3. The customer must register a valid account on the ShowMax website and pay the relevant ShowMax subscription fee to ShowMax
4. Data used by the ShowMax service will be consumed according to the specific product subscribed to
5. Product specific Fair Usage Policies (FUP) apply to all data services. The onus is on the subscriber / customer to consult and understand these.

Errors and omissions excepted (E&OE)